

Applications for Queen Elizabeth Commonwealth Scholarships are now open!

Applications are now open for the second round of Queen Elizabeth Commonwealth Scholarships (2019-20).

The Queen Elizabeth Commonwealth Scholarships (QECS) offer fully-funded Master's scholarships to Commonwealth citizens. Through them, successful applicants can travel to a range of countries, where they can study a variety of courses and benefit from the expertise provided by leading universities. Developing new skills, gaining a qualification and experiencing life in another country through a scholarship is of huge benefit both to the individual and their home country.

Interested Sri Lankan citizens are hereby encouraged to make use of these scholarship opportunities.
